CODE OF CONDUCT

The Guiding Principles of the Code:

Members to uphold and advance the integrity and credibility of the thermography profession by:

- I. Using their knowledge and skill for the betterment of the broader community;
- II. Being honest and impartial, and reliably serving their clients (including their employers) and the public; and
- III. Striving to improve the quality and increase the competence of the thermography profession.

The Basis of Conduct:

1. Members shall hold paramount the safety, health and welfare of the public in the performance of their professional duties.
2. Members shall perform services only in the areas of their competence; they shall build their professional reputation on the merit of their services and shall not compete unfairly with others.
3. Members shall continue their professional development throughout their careers and shall provide opportunities for the professional and ethical development of those Thermographers under their supervision.
4. Members shall act in professional matters for each employer or client as faithful agents or trustees, and shall avoid conflicts of interest or the appearance of conflicts of interest.
5. Members shall respect the proprietary information and intellectual property rights of others, including other professional associations in the thermography field.
6. Members shall associate only with reputable persons or organizations.
7. Members shall issue public statements only in an objective and truthful manner and shall avoid any conduct which brings discredit upon the profession.
8. Members shall consider environmental impact and sustainable development in the performance of their professional duties.
9. Members shall not seek ethical sanction against another Member unless there is good reason to do so under relevant codes, policies and procedures governing that Thermographers ethical conduct.

Members of the AUSPTA shall endeavour to abide by the Constitution, By-Laws and Policies of AUSPTA, and they shall disclose knowledge of any matter involving another member's alleged violation of this Code of Conduct in a prompt, complete and truthful manner to the AUSPTA President and Executive.

CORPORATE SPONSORSHIP APPLICATION (2020)

LICENCE AGREEMENT

Terms of Use of AUSPTA Logo and related Promotional Material

I understand that any financial, voting, Individual, Business or Corporate member of AUSPTA may use the Association logo, marketing materials and signage to promote their business or in their business activities to the level they are professionally qualified.

Unauthorised use or Sub-Licensing of any AUSPTA promotional items is strictly prohibited. Use of AUSPTA promotional items in the propriety documentation of any member of AUSPTA shall not be seen as approval of that documentation by the AUSPTA Executive and Committee. Prior approval for this type of usage of AUSPTA materials must be obtained from the AUSPTA Executive and Committee.

Where a financial Individual Member of AUSPTA is employed by a Business or Corporation who is not a member of AUSPTA, the logos shown above and/or related promotional material must not be used by those entities.

Any non-financial, suspended or expelled Individual, Business or Corporate member of AUSPTA is not permitted use of any Association logo, marketing materials or signage. All AUSPTA logos, decals and insignia must be removed from business premises, offices, vehicles or any other place that could give the misleading impression they remain a member of AUSPTA.

I understand and acknowledge that specific logo use guidelines may be updated periodically and updates will be posted on the Association website www.auspta.asn.au. I agree to accept the terms of such guide lines, and accept it is my responsibility to stay current with these terms.

This agreement applies beyond the cessation of a members association with AUSPTA.

I have read the AUSPTA licence agreement and hereby agree and consent to the terms of use in their entirety.
